

ANYONE CAN BE A HERO

Report Suspicious Activity

If you see someone:

- Acting suspiciously
- In an unauthorized area
- Taking photos or recording video of the building/facility
- Monitoring our company's activities
- Testing the security of our building/facility
- Stealing company property
- Looking into vehicles
- Carrying a suspicious object or package

As a participant in CTPAT, Gore is making a firm commitment to enhance the security of goods moving through our international supply chain. Gore works to protect its supply chain from criminal activities such as drug trafficking, terrorism, human smuggling, and illegal contraband. Allegations or indications of any of the above activities or risks in Gore's supply chain will be promptly investigated and appropriately addressed. An Associate who has evidence of or concerns about inappropriate or illegal conduct in Gore's supply chain are directed to contact their regional Trade team, their leader or the Gore's Ethics Hotline.

Contact ext. 60000 and email Security@wlgore.com

